A Number of Men Meet Death In Chicago.

EXPLOSION ON A LAKE STEAMER.

The Wrecked Vessel Set on Fire and a Horrible Holocaust Follows—Seven Bodies Taken from the Boat, While Eight Others Still Remain in the Hold. CHICAGO, July 11.—The steamer Tigra, of the Erie Transportation company, was badly wrecked by an explosion at 7:40 o'clock yesterday evening, while lying at her dock at Randolph street and the river. It is reported that thirteen people were killed, but at this writing the report cannot be verified.

The explosion was a terrific one and a column of smoke shot 20 feet into the air, succeeded a second later by a whirlwind of flame, which illuminated bridges, buildings and spurs in a fearful glow.

The startled crowds rushed to the river banks, docks, bridges, and soon the scene was thronged with an immense crowd. A general fire alarm had been turned in and soon fifty streams of water from the steamers and firetugs were pouring into the hold of the big iron boat through the gaping hole amidship, from which the flames poured in a torrent.

The Tigra, which was one of the largest and finest propellers on the lakes, is badly wrecked, her upper works being nearly blown away, and her wooden work badly burned. At 10 o'clock the fire was so far under control that the search for the victims of the explosion was begun. Three bodies were soon brought out, blackened and mangled. They were apparently the remains of unfortunate members of the steamer's crew, caught aboard at the time of the explosion.

When the explosion occurred there were between ten and fifteen men in the fun-tail of the boat, while scores of others were forward. There were also several stevedores on the dock and in the ware houses.

Bridge tender Gaynor at the Randolph street bridge, less than a hundred feet away, saw a man whirling upward into the air in the midst of a tremendous mass of blazing wreckage. The poor fellow fell into the river, but was rescued unconscious and cured for.

The explosion did much damage to surrounding buildings, and windows were broken nearly half a mile away.

Up to midnight seven dead and wounded men had been taken from the boat and it was then believed that not more than eight others were in the hold. These men are doubtless dead, as ten fire engines have poured tons of water into the big hole just above the spot where they were at work at the time of the explosion.

It will be at least another day before the water can be pumped from the hold and the bodies recovered.

There is good reason to believe that the explosion was caused by gas generated from oil barrels which were stored near the fun-tail.

So far as learned the following is the names of the killed:

Walter Downs.

—Cuthbert, watchman.

The injured are:

Walter Chaud, colored.

Pompey Smith, colored, fatally.

Thomas Collins, fatally.

J. O'Donnell, fatally.

Oscar Pope, fatally.

The following are supposed to have met their death:

Tom Lewis, Aleck Smith, Henry Alexander, Louis Alexander, Jake Churl, James Braxton, William Dukes, all stevedores; Charles Levalle, lookout man; two unknown deck hands and Louis Scott, James Sissell and —Dickinson, stevedores.

Quite a number of people in the vicinity were injured by the shock or flying debris.

The Tigra's fun-tail is completely shattered. Every steel rib and plate is broken and twisted as if it were so much paper. It is impossible to make an accurate estimate of the damage, owing to the fact that the wrecked stern settled down in the muddy bottom of the river, and the machinery compartments are filled with water.

Forward of the boilers the boat was comparatively uninjured. Capt. Phelps made an examination of the four compartments, which are all separated by steel bulk heads, and found that they were entirely free from water. It is likely that the most of the cargo will escape damage.

Telegraph operators' demands.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—A petition has been started from the office of the superintendent of telegraphs of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern in this city, and is now on its way along the line to Parkersburg, W. Va., which point will be reached in a day or two. The petition will be signed by every telegraph operator on the road, and will ask for the pay to be at a day rate instead of by the month as at present. Operators who are now getting $40 per month will ask for $1.60 per day, while those receiving $50 will ask for $2 per day. As soon as the operators have signed the petition it will be presented to the general superintendent for his decision.

DEATH OF A LIFE SAVER.

Only 31 Years Old, But He Had Saved Eleven Lives.

BOSTON, July 12.—John T. Kilty, the noted life saver, until recently assistant draw tender of the Mt. Washington avenue bridge, is dead of heart trouble, aged 31. During his life he saved eleven persons from drowning. In February, 1889, in saving John Warren, Kilty received the injury that caused his death.

Warren weighed over 200 pounds, and in lifting him from the water Kilty ruptured a blood vessel near the heart. In 1883 the Massachusetts Humane society gave Mr. Kilty a handsome silver medal in recognition of his bravery, and two years ago he received a gold medal from congress for his many brave deeds.

A BRUTAL FARMER.

A Pair of Horses Kept Tied in a Stable for Nine Years.

GOSHEN, Ind., July 12.—James A. Jacobs, a prosperous farmer, living near Lawrence, Mich., nine years ago, became provoked at a pair of fine Norman colts and shut them upon a hard floor in his stable, vowing that they should never step out of the stall again. All these years he has kept them tied up, never once allowing them outdoor exercise. None of the neighbors dared interfere on account of Jacobs' violent temper and influential position. The sheriff has now stepped in and promises to make it warm for Jacobs. The hoofs of the horses have grown out and their hair is long and gray. They can scarcely see, and are thin and wan.

A Criminal's Last Words.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 12.—A ghastly scene occurred yesterday at the hanging of Edward D. Gallagher for the murder of Louis Mar. Fifteen hundred people witnessed the execution. A priest tried to talk with Gallagher on the scaffold, but the condemned man said he was not going to hang and did not care anything about eternity. When the sheriff told him he could speak he stammered out a few words about being sorry to appear in that position. When the command was given to pinion his arms, Gallagher resisted so desperately that it took six men three minutes to secure him. After the black cap had been adjusted the sheriff asked Gallagher to be a man and tell whether he killed Mar. Gallagher's last words were: "It is none of your d—d business."

A Hoarder Cave Story.

STANTON, Ind., July 12.—Fox hunters Thursday accidentally discovered a cave and Thursday night explored it. The leader of the party stumbled over a petrified Indian woman whose ornaments proclaimed her a princess of a powerful tribe. Her shapely arms and ankles were encircled with bracelets of gold and bone, while around her neck was a band of human teeth. Three other bodies were found in a less degree of preservation and scattered throughout the cave were specimens of gold jewelry and a collection of stone cooking utensils, axes, knives and tomahawks.

Bold Kansas City Highwaymen.

KANSAS CITY, July 12.—The vicinity of Eighteen and Dripping streets was terrorized by highwaymen with masks and revolvers early Thursday morning. Several citizens were stopped on the street and robbed of their money and watches. The scoundrels also entered the saloon of R. H. Davis, where they covered the bartender and half a dozen customers with revolvers and robbed them all. The police have not yet succeeded in capturing any of the men.

Ex-Senator McCreery Dead.

OWENSBORO, Ky., July 12.—Hon. Thomas B. McCreery, ex-United States senator, died at 10:30 last night in the 74th year of his age. He suffered a stroke of paralysis in 1879, which was repeated on two or three occasions, and for three years past he has been perfectly helpless. His death has been expected for several days. He leaves three married daughters.

Arrested Too Soon.

BARBERSVILLE, Pa., July 12.—SYLVANUS Palmerton, a well-to-do farmer living near this place, was killed on Wednesday by a young man named Albert Cummings, who was in his employ. Cummings was laboring under a fit of temporary insanity at the time. He was arrested just as he had completed arrangements to hang himself in a barn.

A Woman in the Case.

COLUMBUS, O., July 12.—C. R. Garling was arrested here yesterday evening upon a warrant sworn out by J. D. Bernd & Company, wholesale milliners of Pittsburg, who allege that Garling embezzled $200 from them while in their employ as a traveling salesman. A woman is in the case.

Assignment caused by a strike.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—The railway strike is making itself forcibly felt in business circles. At 3:10 p. m. the Stone & Hines Lumber company assigned to Walter L. Granger. The assets are estimated at $100,000. The liabilities amount to about the same. There are no preferences. T. R. Stone is president of the firm and W. R. Hay is secretary and treasurer. Their office is at Fourth and Plum streets.

Veto Objections Met.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The house committee on Indian affairs has directed favorable reports to be made on a substitute for the Dorsey bill extending the time for payment by purchasers of Omaha Indian lands in Nebraska. The substitute was framed to meet objections made by the president in his message vetoing the original bill on the subject.

A Philadelphia Brewery Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Henry Mueller's brewery at Thirty-first and Jefferson streets was burned yesterday morning. Loss $100,000; fully insured.

Dashed Into Water.

Five Hundred People Thrown Into a Bay.

A NUMBER OF THEM DROWNED.

Devote Work of Rescuers Save a Large Number of Men, Women and Children. Some of the Bodies Recovered and Searching Parties Looking for the Missing—Names of the Victims.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 12.—By the fall of a ferry stage last night a large number of people were thrown into the water, and several were drowned. The disaster was caused by the snapping out of place of the chain which held the float up. The front part of the float was thus dropped suddenly down, throwing the occupants into the water. Later accounts place the number of people on the float at 500. Many were drowned, but the exact number of fatalities cannot be known at present.

The crowd made up of men, women and children, were waiting for the new ferry steamer Annex, which was just arriving from New York. As the boat approached near the landing some persons jumped aboard. The disturbance thus caused to the overcrowded landing stage seems to have caused the accident, at least it was just at this moment that the dump occurred and the hundreds of people on the stage began to slide down into the water, those nearest the end being buried beneath those further back until there was a solid mass of shrieking, struggling humanity, packed as closely in the water as they had been on the deck. For some minutes there was a confused crowd of men, women and children, struggling in the water. A dozen young men leaped to the rescue and the drowning people were passed up to men standing on the wharves. The work of rescue was so rapidly performed that a great majority of those who fell in were saved from death. The rescuers worked until exhausted, helping the people to land until there were no more in sight, and those who could not be saved had sunk out of sight.

When the crowd stepped off the landing stage hundreds of people along the wharf threw boards and sticks to the unfortunate people in the water, and a number of life preservers were thrown to them from the steamer. A great many of them were injured by the flying boards and all the bodies recovered have cuts and bruises. Most of those who fell in were women and children, and the scenes immediately following the disaster were frightful. Several men and their wives were thrown in, and the men made a heroic struggle to save the lives of the women and, as far as known, with great success. Harry Silver was thrown in with his wife and managed to get her out safely. A man named Brodie saw his wife struggling in the dock, jumped in, and succeeded in saving her life. A woman named Logan, with a young child, was thrown into the water and made a hard struggle to keep the child above water until rescued. She was successful and they were brought ashore alive. Edward Foster, an elderly man and his daughter fell in together. The man was rescued alive, but the daughter was drowned.

When all bodies in sight had been brought to land, the work of grappling for the drowned ones was commenced. Within two hours after the accident four bodies had been recovered, but up to midnight no other victims had been found. It is believed that at least thirty or forty others were lost, but the exact number cannot yet be learned.

The news of the disaster caused great excitement and anxiety in Dartmouth and Halifax, and thousands of people turned to the scene and remained there watching or working until a late hour. Divers are at work, and owing to their failure to find more bodies it is hoped that the loss of life is not so large as the reports circulated during the first moments of terror indicated.

The names of those whose bodies have thus far been recovered are:

Miss Bessie, daughter of Edward Foster.

Peter Boyle, a Crimerean veteran.

Miss Allie, daughter of Michael Symm.

John Brady, a colored boy.

A RIVAL TO THE TRUST.

Wonderful Distillery Scheme of Brewer J. D. Iler.

CHICAGO, July 12.—J. D. Iler, a well known western brewer, is preparing to establish a large distilling industry in opposition to the whisky trust. He is in Chicago now for the purpose of selecting machinery for a distilling plant to cost nearly $5,000,000. Such an establishment would furnish all spirits and alcohol that the trust now has traded for, independent of the three outside houses.

It is the idea of Mr. Iler and his associates not only to put up a big distillery but to combine enough industries with it to warrant the establishment of a small western town. This, with the profits from Mr. Iler's breweries, would keep the distillery afloat even if the trust gave way its products. It will be in such shape that the enterprise can meet the terms of the trust at any stage. The plant is to be established on the Missouri river, at some point in the heart of the corn belt, but Mr. Iler declines to make the location public with more exactness, pending the purchase of the necessary land.

Twenty-Eight Buildings Burned.

ITHACA, Mich., July 12.—Fire last night started in the old central house and destroyed the whole block and nearly the whole block west, causing a loss of $23,000; insurance $12,000. Twenty-eight buildings were burned. Cause of fire unknown.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Special Reports to R. G. Dun & Company, of New York.

NEW YORK, July 12.—R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Review of Trade says: In spite of usual midsummer dullness aggravated this year by exceptionally hot weather, the volume of business continues larger for the season than in any previous year, and in all quarters high hopes are stimulated by excellent crop reports. The passage of a silver bill by the senate helps to give encouragement, through delay of action on the tariff question depresses some important industries.

Large exports of gold have begun, however, owing to suspension of specie payments in South America, and urgent demands in that quarter for commercial necessities. The Bank of England lost $2,160,000 gold last week, the Bank of Germany $2,190,000, and the Bank of France $1,215,000, in all $5,565,000, in a week, and it has been decided to call over $5,000,000 gold from this country, the first shipments being to-day, with scanty reserves here on which to begin the fall movement, and money tight at Boston and active in Philadelphia, and in sharp demand in Chicago at 6 per cent. on call, the prospect is less clear than it has been, though rates here are comparatively steady.

The government crop report for July 1 was very favorable as to cotton, showing a better condition than in any previous year for five years and satisfactory as to wheat, the improvement in spring having nearly made good the loss of condition of winter wheat. Corn is in fine condition with small increase in acreage. From many northwestern cities special reports show distinct improvement in trade because of crop prospects, which St. Paul calls the best for years. The general average of prices has advanced fully 1 per cent.

The more important branches of manufacture show hesitation. Wool receipts are large at Boston, but many mills being idle manufacturers do not buy freely, and sales are 2,118,000 pounds. At Philadelphia dullness reigns and western markets are weaker, though still too high for views of most manufacturers. No clue is seen for improvement in prices of goods, and the heavy imports are expected to keep prices down for the rest of the year. In the iron business the buoyancy anticipated at Philadelphia does not appear; there and here pressure to realize keeps the market with northern No. 1 foundry at $17.50 and southern $17, and mill iron especially weak. Rails for full delivery are quoted at $31, and while mills have orders for some time to come, the present demand for finished products is not large. Pittsburgh notes no loss in price, but slower movement.

The traffic of railroads is still very large, for the last week of June about 8 per cent. above last year's, while the few reports for July show still larger gains. Definite agreement to restore rates would give more hope but for the reduction in rates threatened by the interstate commission, which the railroad officials declare will take more money from the companies than has been awarded on any money judgment since the world began. This, with monetary uncertainties, has made stocks hesitate, and London has been selling somewhat freely. But action on the silver bill causes a stronger tone, and it is observed that in spite of their wars the railroads have not been swelling the list of bankruptcies unusually, receiver-ships for the half year covering but $47,000,000 of stocks and bonds of 1,380 miles, while foreclosures for the half year covered $92,000,000 of stocks and bonds and 1,930 miles of road. The steady growth of the country is illustrated in National bank reports, showing an increase since 1880 of 66 per cent. in number of banks, 87 per cent. in deposits and 90 per cent. in loans.

Failures during the last seven days for the United States 175, for Canada 22, total 197, compared with 190 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 191 in the United States, 18 in Canada.

FARM HILL MINE DISASTER.

The Coroner's Jury Holds Superintendent Lang Criminally Responsible.

PITTSBURG, July 12.—A special to The Times from Dumbur, Pa., says: The coroner's jury in the case of the Hill Farm disaster yesterday rendered the following verdict: "Daniel Shearin came to his death while in the discharge of his duty as fire boss in the Hill Farm mine on the 16th day of June, 1890, by being suffocated with after damp and smoke caused by an explosion of gas by John Kerwin opening a drill hole in an unlawful manner, under directions and by order of Robert Lang, superintendent, and that said Robert Lang is criminally responsible in causing the death of said Daniel Shearin."

"David Hay came to his death while in the discharge of duty, in trying to rescue his son in the Hill Farm mine on the 16th day of June, 1890, by being suffocated with after damp and smoke caused by an explosion of gas by John Kerwin opening a drill hole in an unlawful manner under direction and by the order of Robert Lang, superintendent, and that we believe said Robert Lang is criminally responsible in causing the death of said David Hay."

The public feeling is against the verdict. The laboring people say the blame should not be laid on Mr. Lang, who has always been faithful in his duty in looking after the safety and welfare of his employees, and that a similar mistake was liable to be made by any one under the same circumstances.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1890.

THERE is talk of starting a Republican daily paper at Louisville. Talk's cheap, and some Kentucky Republicans are doing a good deal of it these days.

THE Republicans having admitted all the Republican Territories into the Union call a halt on the business of will likely of their new States. Not much danger making adding New Mexico to the list.

FLEMING Democrats are getting ready for a grand charge all along the line last of this month. Speakers have been selected, appointments announced and the boys are fixing for a lively time. We expect a good report from Fleming the first Monday in August. Let the Democrats of Mason go to work and get out the full vote.

It has been suggested by many Republicans in this district that ex-Governor Foraker be made the nominee for Congress. The idea has taken well, and is greatly approved. Highland County is Foraker's native county, and with him as a candidate, things would be made very lively in this district.—Ripley Bee.

Well, well! How have the mighty fallen! "Little Breeches" own district—he lives at Cincinnati—doesn't seem inclined to honor him, so he's to be adopted by some other district. Perhaps there are some aspiring R. publican politicians in Brown, Clermont, Highland or Adams who will seriously object to this arrangement.

THE New York Tribune, the leading Republican organ of the country, is calling loudly for a halt in the pension raid. It states the number of pensioners to be a half million, and continues:

"It will be increased to 750,000 by the bills recently passed. If the entire population is 68,000,000, about one person in eighty-eight of the population receives a pension, and the amount appropriated is about $24 for every person on the rolls this year. Out of all the money raised by customs, internal taxes and miscellaneous receipts for the benefit of all the people, nearly half is paid over to one-eighty-eight of the people and a little more than one-half is expended for national purposes."

These figures would make the annual outlay for pensions $168,000,000. Isn't it about time the Tribune was calling a halt?

The Lewis County Clique.

Here's the way the Vanceburg Times does up the clique of Republican politicians who have been running "the State of Lewis" for years: "The Vanceburg ring has the following ticket formulated and they intended to attempt to make the Republicans of the county accept it if possible:

For delegate to Constitutional Convention, S. J. Pugh, of Vanceburg; for Circuit Court Clerk, A. P. Darrow, of Vanceburg; for County Judge, A. H. Parker, of Vanceburg; for County Clerk, Thos. A. Mitchell, of Vanceburg; for County Attorney, E. H. Fitch, of Vanceburg; for Sheriff, J. C. William of Vanceburg; for Jailor, Jos. Cottingham, of Vanceburg. They may conclude to trade Joe off for his having been a soldier. The other little miner officers you fellows out in the country may divide among you, for they only want you to trade on any way, to get votes for Parker, Mitchell, William and Pugh. They are the ticket, they have the hoodle to "buy the Alliance!" (selah.) Look-out for this combination of talent, wealth, prowess and power. Listen at some of them curse Mavity for being poor. Look-out for lies of the 6th magnitude to be in circulation with currency—brand new currency—and hear their satellites preach that vote buying has become part of the organic law and that the government could not exist without it."

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Perry Fyffe in Trouble.

A special from Chattanooga, July 9, says: "Capt. J. P. Fyffe, of the Lookout Mountain Guards, was tried this morning by a Justice of the Peace for 'assault with arms,' committed on July 4 on a dummy line train. Conductor Webster said Captain Fyffe ordered his men out to load with balls, and that one or two of the military held cartridges under his nose and told him to smell of them. After the train started, two guns were fired. Engineer Rawlings testified that Captain Fyffe said he would run the train himself, and ordered File 1 to take charge of the engine; that one of the Lieutenants, Frye, said he would arrest him, Rawlings, at the point of the sword if he did not get out of the way and let them have the train. When the men got to the engine the engineer and fireman ran them off, although the military men were at fixed bayonets. After the testimony for the defense had been heard, the Justice said he thought a case had been made out, and he would send it up to the grand jury. Captain Fyffe's friends gave the required bonds."

Captain Fyffe is well known here. He left Maysville a few years ago and settled in Chattanooga, where he is practicing law.

Marriage of Miss Maggie Gilpin.

A copy of the Daily Progress, of Marshall, Mo., has been received, giving an account of the marriage of Miss Maggie Gilpin to Mr. J. L. V. Davis, on June 26. The bride is a daughter of Joseph Gilpin, formerly a jewelry merchant in this city. The Progress says: "The groom is a son Judge James Davis, for so long a time a member of our county bench, and has spent most of his life in Saline County. He resides now on his farm near Fairville. He is an active, industrious man and a good farmer, and has no lack of friends who will congratulate him on his happy marriage. The wedding is said to be the consummation of a courtship first begun in the groom's early manhood. He never forgot his first love through all the experiences of his personal relations, and felt pardonable pride in leading the object of his youthful affections to the altar. The bride is a worthy lady, the sister of Mrs. G. C. Heard, wife of Congressman Heard's father; and of our worthy and esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Charles Gilpin."

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher, relict of the late Corbin Gallagher, and mother of Rev. Dr. J. N. Gallagher, Bishop of Louisiana. Her death occurred Thursday morning in New Orleans, at the home of her son, with whom she lived. The family lived in Washington, this county, when the Bishop was born and from which place he went to the University of Virginia and afterwards to the Confederate Army. Mrs. Gallagher was a most excellent woman, wife and mother, and is remembered at her old home with much affection by a wide circle of friends for her many good qualities of mind and heart.

The wheat crop in Fleming is not up to last year's yield. It will reach about 60 per cent. of the 1889 crop.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company wish the people to know they can get wire screen doors and spring hinges, wire cloth (all widths), fly traps and rat traps at their hardware house.

THE services at the Church of the Nativity to-morrow will be: Holy communion at 10:15 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 11. The evening service and Sunday school will be omitted for a few weeks, during the hot weather. The rector, Rev. D. D. Chapin, returned from Pittsburg on Thursday.

MR. J. C. BING, editor and proprietor of the Citizen published at Boyden, Iowa, is in town. On March 24th, his brother, A. Bing, in company with Ex-Commissioner of Internal Revenue Jos. Miller and J. L. Smedley, was crossing Twelve Pole Creek, in West Virginia, when the boat was swamped and Bing was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered. Mr. J. C. Bing is here investigating, to see whether the remains of any unknown person have been taken from the river in this vicinity since the above date.

River News.

Beasley's bar is showing up for the first time in a long, long while.

The Telegraph for Pomeroy, Chancellor for Pomeroy and Hudson for Pittsburg are due up to-night.

The familiar whistle of the Fleetwood sounded yesterday afternoon, and one of the handsomest crafts that stems the Ohio soon rounded in at the wharf—fresh from her contests with the New South. She has taken the Boston's place in the Pomeroy trade for a trip or two, and will pass down to-morrow about noon. In the mean time the big Boston will attend to the New South in the Louisville trade.

Says an exchange: "The competition in the Louisville trade is assuming more complications. The Fleetwood has reduced the fare to 50 cents. The move it has developed is a mistake, as she cannot carry any more passengers than the Government permits and it has not damaged the New South a particle. It was currently reported that the latter boat is being backed by the Big Four Railroad and the Inman Steamship Company, who have always had great trouble in making rates with the old Mail Line. It is also stated that the Spread Eagle and the Gem City, two fleet Mississippi side-wheelers, will be placed in the trade to assist the New South in bringing the Mail Line to terms."

Mrs. W. A. Schatzman and son, and her sister, Mrs. Sickenger, arrived home last night after a pleasant visit to their father, Mr. Keller, at Logan's Gap, O.

A BLACKSMITH SAVED THE LIFE OF A LITTLE GIRL.—Minnie Carney was perhaps as near leaving this world as anyone can be to recover. She was sick with cholera morbus, completely exhausted and unconscious. The physicians in consultation decided the case was hopeless and beyond their control. Chas. J. Newcomb, a blacksmith, walked four miles through the darkness and storm, to get a remedy he had himself used, and which he firmly believed would cure her. That medicine was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He obtained part of a bottle, with which he hastily returned, and gave the little sufferer a half teaspoonful, which relieved her and consciousness gradually returned. The medicine was given in broken doses, and in a short time she was well. He is positive that it saved her life, and has others in that vicinity. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

THE MAYSVILLE POSTOFFICE.

It Will Undoubtedly Be Restored to the Second Class, Where It Belongs.

It was announced a few days since that the Maysville postoffice had been reduced from the second to the third class. The order went into effect July 1.

The action of the Department at Washington City cutting the office down was as big a surprise to Postmaster Davis as it was to the rest of the citizens of Maysville. The figures he had reported to the department as to the business done by the office the past year showed the receipts to be more than $100 over $8,000, the amount necessary to keep the office in the second class. Mr. Davis had had charge of the office about two months only of the year, Mr. A. C. Respass serving the rest of time, and furnishing him the figures for part of the past quarter. Investigation at the department in Washington showed that the total receipts of the office for the year as reported there were $49,79 less than $8,000. There had been a mistake somewhere. The investigation was continued at this end of the line, and the result is that the office will without doubt soon be restored to the second class.

An error of $80 in Mr. Respass' receipts for box rents for the last quarter was found. Postoffice Inspector George C. Holden was in town yesterday, attending to the case. Mr. Respass promptly corrected the error, and Mr. Holden left last night to make a report to the Department at Washington. An order restoring the office to the second class will, without doubt, be entered in a few days.

THE Louisville Commercial says: "Judge Thompson has decided that a policeman may use his pistol in effecting the arrest of a felon when all other means have failed, but a policeman has no right to use firearms for the purpose of catching a person guilty of a misdemeanor."

His host of friends were glad to meet him and take him by the hand. He was accompanied by Mr. Chamberlain, who came out in the interest of a Knights of Pythias Lodge it is proposed to establish here at an early day."

Proceedings of the Senate and House.

THE MERCHANT MARINE BILL.

It is Discussed at Length in the Senate, but No Vote Reached.—The Silver Bill Comes Up in the House.—Other News from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The senate yesterday passed the bill to confirm the deed of conveyance by the commissioners of the District of Columbia to Masonic Lodge of lots in Anacostia.

The senate then proceeded to the consideration of senate bill to establish a United States land court and to provide for the settlement of private land claims in New Mexico, Wyoming, Arizona, Utah, Nevada and Colorado, such claims being by virtue of Spanish or Mexican grants. After a short discussion this measure was laid aside and the merchant marine bill taken up.

Mr. Gibson argued against the proposed subsidies for ships, but in favor of modern postal subsidies. He spoke of the importance of establishing a line of steamships to trade with the Congo country, of building a government dry dock at New Orleans, and of reforming the tariff by admitting commodities from the American states at the lower rates of duties. But there was nothing, he said, more destructive of the shipping interests than an attempt to tax the farmers and producers of the country in order to supply bounties for ship builders.

Mr. Coke stated some of the reasons why the opposed bill to grant subsidies in aid of the merchant marine. That proposition, he said, commenced at the surface and not at the root of the trouble. The cause which had, from 1855 to 1889, pulled down the carrying trade of the American merchant marine from 75 per cent. of imports and exports to 16 per cent. was not a surface cause or a casual cause. The first great leading cause of the decadence had been the substitution of iron and steel ships for wooden ships. To that original cause had been added the legislation that forbade American citizens from buying foreign built ships, and the tariff legislation that tended to isolate the United States from other nations in regard to international trade.

Mr. Vest offered as a substitute for the bill, as to the American merchant marine, a provision for free ships, to be used only in the foreign carrying trade, not in the coastwise or lake trade.

The bills went over without action after an unsuccessful effort by Mr. Frye to have an agreement to vote upon them to-day.

After a brief executive session, the senate at 5:40 p. m. adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The house adopted the conference report on the bill granting the right of way across the Mills Lanes Indian reservation to the Little Falls Mills Lanes and Lake Superior Railroad company.

The house then went to the private calendar, and Mr. McKinnon, of California, called up the private bill for the relief of Charles Murphy, of California.

The previous question was ordered, 111 to 54, and after discussion was passed, 100 to 69.

Mr. Conger, of Iowa, presented the conference report on the silver bill.

Mr. Bland raised the question of consideration, on which the vote was 104 to 41. This was a strict party vote except that Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, voted in the affirmative, so that he might move a reconsideration. The motion was made useless by the discovery that no quorum was present.

A call of the house was then ordered and 194 members, more than a quorum, responded. On suggestion of Mr. Blount, of Georgia, it was agreed to debate the conference report for four hours to-day, the previous question to be considered as ordered at the end of that time.

At 4:25 the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to private pension bills.

When the house met to consider pension bills, Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, made the point of order of no quorum, and at 8:15 p. m. the house adjourned.

International Bi-Metallic Money.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Mr. Teller introduced in the senate yesterday a joint resolution providing for an invitation to be extended by the president of the United States to the governments of the Latin-American countries to join the United States in a conference for the establishment of a common ratio between gold and silver for the international use of bi-metallic money. The resolution was referred to the committee on finance.

An American's Rights.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, introduced in the senate a resolution which was referred to the committee on foreign relations, calling on the secretary of state for information concerning the claim of Thomas T. Collins, an American citizen, that he has been deprived of his rights, liberty and property at Manila, in the Philippine islands, and as to what action in the matter has been taken by the state department.

Another Public Building Asked For.—WASHINGTON, July 12.—Mr. McCleary, of Kentucky, introduced in the house a bill appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Lawrenceburg, Ky.

Men Thrown Out of Work.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 12.—A large number of men are thrown out of employment by the shutting down of the furnaces of the Chestnut Hill Iron Ore company, owing to the dullness of the market and a large stock on hand.

Epidemic of Diphtheria.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 12.—Advices from St. Johns, N. F., say that there have been 2,671 cases of diphtheria and fifty-three deaths since the outbreak of the epidemic. The disease is now under control.
